The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 1, to Saturday October 5, 1754.

Kensington, October 2.

THIS Day Signior Zon, Resident from the most Serene Republick of Venice, had his first private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Robinson, Knight of the Bath, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Rome, Sept. 7. The Sea having again destroyed the Works that were begun for re-establishing the Port of Anzio, it is at length determined to abandon that Design, the Undertakers finding that the Expences which will attend the keeping it afterwards in Repair, will far exceed the Advantages that are expected from it. On Thursday last the ordinary Courier who carries the Letters from hence to Naples, was attacked by a Gang of Highwaymen between Terracine and Fondi, and robbed of a Casket of Gold Watches and Snuff Boxes, sent by a Banker of this City to his Correspondent at Naples. We learn by Advices from the Sea Coast, that an Algerine Corsair having landed some Men near Flumicino, they had the Assurance to march almost up to the very Gates of the Town, being favoured by a thick Fog, and carried off ten Persons into Slavery.

Genoa, Sept. 7. We are informed by the last Dispatches received here from the Marquess Doria, our new Commissary General in Corsica, that he has some Hopes the rebellious Subjects in that Island will in the End submit to the Genoese Government, as the Appearances seem at present very favourable.

Leghorn, Sept. 7. They write from Calvi in Corsica, that the new Genoese Commissary General in that Island has invited the Malecontents to send Deputies to treat on the Steps neceſſary to be taken in order to their Return to their Obedience. We have received Advice, by the Way of Marsailles, that three Danish Ships were arrived in the Road of Saffy, in the Kingdom of Morocco, with warlike Stores for the equipping of two Men of War lately built in that Port. The Algerine Corsairs continue to be extremely troublesome to the Navigation in these Parts. They have lately taken a Neapolitan Ship, but the Crew had the good Fortune to save themselves.

Florence, Sept. 10. The Regency, upon Notice that the Dominican Friar of the Del Monte Family, with his two Brothers, and a Troop of Banditti, had lately committed great Insults upon the Estate belonging to a Branch of the same Family establish'd at Florence, whose Factor they barbarously murder'd, have commissioned the Magistrates of the Tribunal for Criminal Causes to publish an Edict, not only to authorize any Body to kill the said Brothers, and their Followers, but to offer a Reward of 2000 Crowns to any one who shall deliver any one of them alive into the Hands of Justice, and 300 Crowns for each of their Followers; 1000 Crowns for each of the Brothers dead, and 100 for any of their Followers, besides other Inducements mentioned in the Edict, which it is thought will very probably produce the Effect, as they are surrounded by Banditti, and Criminals who have fled from Justice, and who not only will obtain the Reward in Money, but likewise a general Pardon of whatever Crimes they stand accused of, or the Power of naming another, in Case they should not stand in Need of such a Pardon for themselves. M. Biglia, the new Nuncio from the Pope, arrived here late last Night, and was this Morning complimented in Person by Count Richecourt, who has, for the present, laid aside his Intention of going to the Baths at Pisa, in order to treat with this new Minister, and render compleat the Accommodation with the Court of Rome. By the last Letters from Vienna, Marquess Desarmoises, Captain of the Emperor's Body Guard here, called la Garde Noble, has obtained Leave to resign that Post, and to retire into Lorrain; and the Emperor has granted him a Pension during his Life. No Person will be appointed to succeed him, but that Guard, which is greatly reduced from its original Number of 100, will be commanded by M. de Raschourt, Lieutenant of that Corps, without Addition of either Rank or Appointments.

Milan, Sept. 12. The Great Chancellor Count Chriſtiani proposes to set out this Week for Mantua, from whence he is to proceed to Vienna.

Vienna, agreeably to the Orders he has received from her Imperial Majeſty. Laſt Monday Morning the Marqueſs de Clerici ſet out from hence for Hungary, in order to join his Regiment, which is at preſent quartered in that Kingdom. We learn from Ferrara, that ſince the Cardinal Legat has ordered the Ring-Leaders of the late Tumults about the Jews to be proſecuted, Tranquillity is reſtored there, and the Jews meet with no farther Moleſtation.

Strasbourg, Sept. 12. The Troops encamped at Plockſheim, under the Command of Count Maillebois, went through their whole Exerciſe this Week in the Preſence of the Marſhal Duke de Belle-Iſle, and the Marqueſs d'Argenſon; and Yeſterday thoſe two Noblemen ſet out for the Camp at Saarre-Louis.

Two of the Perſons who committed this Robbery are deſcribed as ſhort Men, dreſſed like Sailors; and the other a tall Man in a red Coat.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again; and by James Eſdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Diſſertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, ſold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

By the KING's PATENT.
